VICTORIA, B.C., Feb. 13 — On-line on-line seller of used, rare and out-of-print books Abebooks has announced the launch of Libros en Español, a new area on Abebooks.com dedicated to Spanish books and authors. The new area makes it easy to find and buy — or list and sell — books of interest to Hispanic and Latino readers and collectors, in Spanish and in English.

The page was created with booksellers and collectors in Puerto Rico, Argentina, Spain, Ecuador, Mexico, the United States and Canada who already list their books on abebooks.com, featuring Spanish authors as well as books that focus on Hispanic history, biography, language, culture and academic studies. These include new, used, rare and out-of-print books, as well as maps, prints, magazines and comics in English and in Spanish.

Libros en Español is located at abebooks.com/Espanol, and currently lists 200,000 books from the Abebooks database of 50 million books.
