Abebooks Annual Writing Contest

Publish Date: 24-Feb-2005

Are you a teenager with a story to tell? The Claremont Review, a literary magazine out of Victoria aimed at young readers and writers, wants to help make you one of the stars of tomorrow. The 2005 edition of the review's literary contest, rebranded this year as the Abebooks Annual Writing Contest in conjunction with the Victoria-based on-line bookseller, is seeking entrants aged 13 to 19. Send three poems or short stories (500 words each, or one 1,500-worder) by April 15 and you could win $500, publication in the review, and a year's subscription. Details on runner-up prizes, mailing address, et cetera are on-line at www.theclaremontreview.ca/. Good luck.
